April 6, 2010; Volume V Issue VII

This is the one hundred and seventh issues of the Faith and Community-Based Loop (FCB Loop). The FCB Loop is a listserv that sends out biweekly email updates with postings of upcoming conferences, information, grants and funding opportunities, trainings, seminars, and workshops that would be of interest to Faith and Community-Based organizations. Please send any upcoming information about conferences, grants and funding opportunities, trainings, seminars, and workshops to Nakia.Kyler@ServeAlabama.gov to be published in the FCB Loop.

Please Note: The headings of new additions to the Loop are italicized and in red.

Conferences, Trainings, Seminars and Workshops

- Be Ready Camp

Would you like your children or students to develop their leadership skills? Give them an opportunity to learn about disaster preparedness, participate in a full scale mock disaster exercise and meet new friends in the process? If so, register for Be Ready Camp. Located at the U.S. Space and Rocket Center in Huntsville, Alabama, Be Ready Camp is an innovative and unique five day full immersion residential camp that promotes citizen preparedness and participation to sixth graders in the State of Alabama.

Participants are selected through a competitive process and must be an Alabama resident who will be in the sixth grade in September 2010. The application process is open to all learners with applicants choosing to submit an essay, video or poster. Be Ready Camp is free to participants who are selected. It is the responsibility of the participant's parent and/or guardian to provide transportation to Huntsville, Alabama. We believe this is an outstanding and unique opportunity for Alabama students. Please feel free to pass this information along to your local churches, schools and non-profits. If you would like more information on Be Ready Camp please visit the website www.BeReadyCamp.org or contact Marguerite Long at 334-954-7451 or Marguerite.Long@servealabama.gov.

- Help Operation REACH's Gulfsouth Youth Biodiesel Project Win $15,000

The Gulfsouth Youth Biodiesel Project (GYBP) was selected as a finalist in the Clorox Green Heroes Grant Program contest, and they need your vote to win the grand prize, a $15,000 grant to fund the program. Voting is now open and will continue through April 18, 2010.

Voting Instructions: To vote, sign into your facebook account, go to their nomination page, <http://apps.facebook.com/greenheroes/heroes/345>, click on "vote" to support the GYBP. Share the link with your family, friends, and coworkers.

The Gulfsouth Youth Biodiesel Project (GYBP) is a youth-led entrepreneurship project focusing on the production and sale of biodiesel fuel as a means of educating and developing leadership and social entrepreneurship of young people as part of a "Green Collar" workforce.

- 2010 National Conference on Citizenship
BIG Citizenship: Citizens as Catalysts and Innovators

Please save the date for the 64th Annual National Conference on Citizenship to be held on Citizenship Day-September 17, 2010-in Washington DC. Individuals everywhere are self-organizing to meet community needs, demanding transparency and accountability from elected officials and greater social responsibility from corporations.

The 2010 National Conference on Citizenship, "BIG Citizenship: Citizens as Catalysts and Innovators," will explore the powerful role civic innovators are playing in fostering societies that are informed, engaged, giving and trusting. Registration will open soon, but please mark your calendar now. For more information, please visit www.ncoc.net

- 2010 Census: What's In It For You?

Each of us has a lot at stake as we prepare to complete our 2010 Census forms. By participating we can affect the quality of life in our community for the better. Every year, the federal government distributes more than $400 billion to state, local, and tribal governments based on census data – funding used for new roads, schools, hospitals and to enhance important community programs. Census data also gives us a voice in Congress as the data to determine the number of seats each state will have in the U.S. House of Representatives. Please complete and mail back your form and encourage your family, friends and neighbors to do the same. For more information, visit www.2010census.gov

- Tracks To Success – Using Appreciative Inquiry

This four-part series, written by Alexandra Peters, will take you through the three basic phases of Appreciative Inquiry. Appreciative Inquiry is an approach that will help your organization define its strengths, articulate its vision, and implement positive change. The series offers guidelines on how to integrate this approach into your grantseeking process. Click on the link provided above to read Part Four: Using Design and Destiny Principles from Appreciative Inquiry: Change What Could Be to What Will Be.

- My Elevator Speech

Can you make a convincing case for your cause in 30 seconds? That first encounter is your chance to open a door and leave a lasting impression. Join Debby Bloom to learn effective ways to succinctly tell your story by focusing on the heart of the issue. This webinar will also teach you how to highlight your strengths and stimulate interest in your work/cause/issue. You'll come away with the confidence needed to win over new prospects, grantmakers, and other stake holders. The webinar will be held Wednesday, April 21, 2010. This webinar is $89.00 per person and $150.00 per site. Visit the link listed below to register.

- Using Outcome Data to tell Your Story

Every nonprofit organization has a story to tell, but many remain as a "best kept secret" year after year. Stories developed around well-documented outcome data are vital to building your organization's relationship with the community. So how do you enhance your organization's compelling stories with solid outcome data in order to advance your mission? During this webinar, Alice Ruhnke will discuss methods to collect the data you need, how to use data-driven stories to communicate your message, and ways to tailor your story to constituencies both inside and outside of your organization. The webinar will be held Thursday, April 22, 2010. This webinar is $89.00 per person and $150.00 per site. Visit the link listed below to register.

- Alabama Marriage and Family

The Alabama Community Healthy Marriage Initiative (ACHMI) is made up of people who have a passion and expertise for helping families thrive. ACHMI is funded by a 5-year grant from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Family Assistance. It is a partnership between Auburn University, the Alabama Cooperative Extension System, the Children's Trust Fund of Alabama, a consortium of state agencies and organizations, and eleven Family Resource Centers, two Mental Health Centers, and a growing number of other individuals and community-based organizations who have joined together to provide programs and services to support the development and maintenance of healthy relationships and stable marriages throughout Alabama. The ACHMI has Workshops that can be viewed online at this address:

<http://www.alabamamarriage.org/workshops.php>

Volunteer Resources

With volunteerism and civic engagement becoming a vastly growing movement throughout our nation, the Governor's Office of Faith-Based & Community Initiatives has created the Volunteer Resource section. This section's primary role will be to provide resources, tools, and volunteer search engines in order to build the capacity of volunteerism throughout the State of Alabama.

- Nonprofit Capacity Building Program (NCPB)

A new program authorized by the Edward M. Kennedy Serve America Act, will increase the capacity of a small number of intermediary grantees to work with small and midsize nonprofits in communities facing resource hardship challenges to develop and implement performance management systems. Grantees will provide recipients with organizational development assistance to establish procedures for measuring progress and improving performance towards intended outcomes leading to community impact. Awards will be made to eligible intermediary nonprofit organizations on a competitive basis.

For the purposes of this competition, the term nonprofit means an organization described in section 501(c)(3) and exempt from taxation under section 501(a) or in paragraph (1) or (2) of section 170 of the IRS code of 1986. For more information, please visit:

- Parade All America High School Service Team

Do you know a high school student who is making a big difference in the community? They can be nominated (or self-nominate) for the Parade All America High School Service Team. PARADE Magazine and The LEAGUE (a national youth service-learning organization which empowers young people to make a positive difference in their communities) are seeking nominations for a new form of award, The All America High School Service Team, to recognize students who have made exemplary contributions in the service areas of: health, education, environment, economics or community. These students show service as a solution to solve community problems and the power of stories to inspire others to action.

All nominations must be received online by April 14, 2010 at 5:00 p.m. EST. Nominations will be scored by independent reviewers based on impact of using service to solve community problems. Final winners will be selected by a blue ribbon panel of leaders from across sectors and will be invited to receive an award and accept the challenge of a task: developing their own ideas as a national group for promoting service and service-learning in schools nationwide. The 15 winning students will be invited to travel to Washington DC with a parent or teacher for a special ceremony on June 9. www.parade.com/service or www.theleague.org

- Spring 2010 Edition of NYLC's The Generator Now Available

With this issue of The Generator we turn from a focus on the K-12 service-learning standards to an exploration of the Service-Learning Cycle, beginning with the first and most fundamental step: identifying academic goals. We explore how teachers and administrators can use service-learning to address existing state, district, or classroom goals while being responsive to urgent needs such as assisting Haiti, post-earthquake.

Read about Common Cents' approach to fundraising and youth philanthropy, hear from Haiti native and Rochester, N.Y.'s Superintendent, and consider some "essential questions" for teachers and administrators in embarking on service-learning experiences. www.nylc.org

- Global Youth Service Day April 23 – 25, 2010

Global Youth Service Day (GYSD) is an annual campaign that celebrates and mobilizes the millions of children and youth who improve their communities each day of the year through service and service-learning. Established in 1988, GYSD is the largest service event in the world and is now celebrated in over 100 countries.

On April 23 – 25, 2010, children and youth will address the world's most critical issues in partnership with families, schools, community and faith-based organizations, businesses, and governments. If you would like more information on how you can get involved, please visit www.GYSD.org.

- Six Flags Friends Scholarships

DoSomething.org has teamed up with Six Flags Friends to award college scholarships to young leaders who are taking action to make their community a better place. Scholarships will be awarded based on past, current and planned action in the community as well as the applicant's passion, commitment and proven leadership skills. Six winners will receive a $1,500 college scholarship. The scholarship deadline is April 30, 2010. For more information, please visit: www.dosomething.org/grants/sixflags/scholarships

- Gloria Barron Prize for Young Heroes

Nominate a young service-learning leader for a $2,500 Barron Prize! The Gloria Barron Prize for Young Heroes seeks nominations for its 2010 awards. The Barron Prize honors young people ages 8 to 18 who have made a significant positive difference to people and our planet. Each year, ten national winners each receive $2,500 to support their service work or higher education. Nomination deadline is April 30. For more information and to nominate, visit www.barronprize.org

- Senior Corps – Grant Opportunity

On January 26, the Corporation issued a Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA) that will provide grant funding to launch new RSVP projects to engage volunteers ages 55 and over in communities not currently served by RSVP or to expand existing service programs. The RSVP NOFA totals $2.7 million in new funding that will be made available through a national competition.

An initial submission of a concept paper is required and applicants who have submitted successful concept papers will be invited to submit full applications. The concept paper deadline is February 22, 2010, and the deadline for full applications is April 6, 2010. Successful applicants will be notified by August 20, 2010. - State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP)

Helping senior citizens enroll in Medicare's Prescription Drug Plan is one of the largest projects the Alabama Department of Senior Services and the Area Agencies on Aging have undertaken. Last year, the faith-based and community initiatives network assisted the State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP) counselors and volunteers at the local Area Agencies on Aging in the Medicare Part D enrollment effort. ADSS is asking for your assistance again this year to ensure our state's elderly population receives proper counseling and advice. Your help is needed to guide new seniors through enrollment and assist those already on Medicare Part D in evaluating their coverage for the coming year. Your organization can help to ensure that seniors receive the counseling they need to make an informed choice.

For more information on how to volunteer or to host an event for Medicare beneficiaries and their families, email ageline@adss.alabama.gov or call 1-800-AGE-LINE.

- Cities of Service Leadership Grant

Founded in New York City on September 10, 2009 with 17 founding member cities, Cities of Service is a bipartisan coalition of mayors who have answered the historic Edward M. Kennedy Serve America Act's call to action. Funded jointly by the Rockefeller Foundation and Bloomberg Philanthropies, the $2 million worth of grants will be awarded to ten cities, on a competitive basis, whose mayors have committed to increase the amount and impact of service in their communities. Each recipient city will receive $200,000 over a two-year period for the specific purpose of hiring a Chief Service Officer, an individual who will lead local efforts on behalf of their city's mayor to develop and implement a citywide plan to increase volunteerism.

To be considered for the two-year Cities of Service Leadership Grant, a city's mayor must be a member of the Cities of Service coalition and have signed and agreed to implement the coalition's Declaration of Service. Mayors interested in joining the Cities of Service Coalition should visit www.citiesofservice.org for registration. In addition, all applicant cities must have at least 100,000 residents according to the 2000 census and be home to at least one community college or a four-year public or private university.

The grant application can be found at www.citiesofservice.org and must be received no later than April 9, 2010.

The mission of the McCormick Foundation is to advance the ideals of a free, democratic society by investing in our children, communities, and country. The McCormick Veterans Program honors the service of America's veterans by supporting nonprofit organizations that assist veterans in overcoming their unique challenges and successfully re-entering life at home and work. Grants of $5,000 to $250,000 are provided to organizations that focus on one of the following five key areas relevant to veterans: mental health (including traumatic brain injury, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, and traumatic injuries); family issues (including psychological support for family members of veterans suffering from injuries); shelter and homelessness (including programs to help homeless veterans or provide special needs housing); job and career development (including job training, counseling, and resume preparation); and legal challenges facing our veterans. Letters of inquiry may be submitted throughout the year. Visit the McCormick Foundation website to review the funding guidelines.

- Grants Promote Rights for People in Need

The Public Welfare Foundation supports efforts to ensure fundamental rights and opportunities for people in need nationwide. The Foundation looks for carefully defined points where funds can make a difference in bringing about systemic changes that can improve lives. The Foundation's 2010 funding priorities include the following issue areas: The Criminal and Juvenile Justice program supports strategies to lower rates of incarceration and decrease prison population by changing specific laws, policies, or agency regulations. The Health Reform program seeks to assure that the voice of the consumer is heard on the health reform issue, particularly at the state and local levels, by building the capacity of systems of advocacy with expertise in policy, health law, fiscal analysis, community organizing, etc. The Worker's Rights program supports organizations that are trying to improve the lives of working people by ensuring their basic legal rights to safe, healthy, and fair conditions at work.

Letters of inquiry must be submitted six to eight weeks before the proposal deadlines of March 29 and July 26, 2010. Detailed guidelines for each of the grant programs are available on the Foundation's website.
